

Governor's Office on Disability

Your one-stop resource for information on disability-related issues in Alabama

Mission

The mission of the Governor's Office on Disability (GOOD) is "facilitating the inclusion of Alabamians with disabilities in education, employment, housing, transportation, health care, and leisure."

Goals

- Establish a united voice to determine and meet the needs of the GOOD mission
- Serve as advisor on public disability-related issues in Alabama
- Monitor Alabama's disability-related legislation and policies and provide policy analysis to Gov. Kay Ivey and the Governor's Office
- Promote public awareness of actions and activities in fulfilling GOOD mission

No-cost services

- Accessibility surveying
- Presentations at meetings or seminars
- Training
- Information on and referral related to education, employment, health care, housing, leisure, and transportation

Governor's Office on Disability

1-888-879-3582 (toll free) • 1-334-293-7228 • 1-334-293-7394 (fax)

Want to hear the latest GOOD news?

www.good.alabama.gov/join-the-good-list

The Governor's Office on Disability is housed in the Alabama Department of Rehabilitation Services.